

Sunday 19 June 2022
@ PPT Bovey Tracey & St Mary's Hennock

Dear friends,

Our sermon series through James reaches ch 5 this week, and James has stern words for those who hoard their riches, or live self-indulgently while others go hungry. This a timely challenge, when the rising cost of living is worrying many, especially those on low or fixed incomes. As a church we want to help those in need, and we need to watch our own costs. We are considering a Parish Benevolent Fund, and also recognise that some church members may need to reduce their regular giving, so later this month we will be publishing a leaflet explaining how everyone should give something, and how the church council is trying to budget for the future.

yours in Christ

Graham

Discussion Questions: The Risk of Riches

Icebreaker: What risks do the rising costs of living bring to you and your family?

James returns to economic issues (see also 1.9-11, 2.5-7)

Read James 4.13-17: who is James addressing here? Are they Christians?

What is wrong with planning ahead? How should we plan?

What have they forgotten? (vv 14, 17)

read James 5.1-6: Who is James talking to in this passage? Are they Christians?

What sort of risks arise from possessing wealth?

When does 'saving' become 'hoarding'? v3 What harm will it do?

How were these people using their wealth v.5? Compare LK 16.19

How were these people making their wealth? vv 4, 6

Read vv 6-9 How should poor Christians respond to injustice?

How will God act to save them?

Application: how should we as a church help the poor? cf Acts 4.35, Acts 6
